LETTER DATED 3 AUGUST 1992 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF IRAQ TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

On instructions from my Government and with reference to our previous letters, the last of which (No. 1/10/261) was dated 22 July 1992 and contained in an annex a letter, also dated 22 July 1992, from the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Iraq, I wish to inform you that two United States aircraft dropped incendiary bombs, on 27 July 1992, at 1035 hours, on the region of Salamiya (Governorate of Nineveh).

In drawing your attention to these acts of aggression, the Government of the Republic of Iraq condemns these flagrant attacks against the security of Iraq and the integrity of its citizens, its enterprises and its farms and places the responsibility for the consequences which may result on the United States party.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.
